For years, Alan has been hiding away in a tiny logging town, running away from the demons of his past. Hes a shapeshifter, a man who at the full moon becomes a bear, an unwanted lineage passed down to him, and one that he cant ever escape...or the harm its done to those he loved most. As a result, hes sworn never to get close to anyone again. Its too dangerous...hes too dangerous. Anna is fighting her own demons - a too-rough boyfriend that she followed to the town. Alan sticks up for her one night at the bar, and he cant ignore the fact that hes desperately attracted to her...a situation made worse when she shows up one night homeless and in need of help. He cant turn her down, but with the full moon approaching, giving in to their desires could do more harm than good. And Alan must contend not only with desiring Anna, but the knowledge that she could mean more to him than just the casual fling hed been wanting. Are you ready to try something a little more alpha than youre used to? Dont worry, I wont tell a soul.
