

My Love for Layne

My Love for Layne is about two soul mates and the intensified love that they have between one another and the hardships faced when one is diagnosed with a heart condition. As their relationship progresses, they find it impossible to be with one another as too many people are involved in their relationship. Even though they know they are soul mates and the deepness shows within the heart and soul of their eyes, they find they cannot be together. My Love for Layne is about the hardships faced of being broken apart and years later being reunited with one another. It is about patience, having hope and having faith in what true love is all about. This is a lesbian based novel and is based on a true story.
