

Manga Stress Free Coloring: Stress Relieving Patterns and Art Therapy Designs

Did you know that Pink Makes You Docile, Orange Makes You Buy Stuff and Red Makes You Mad? Upon deeper digging, it turns out that chromotherapy, also known as color light therapy, is something we all encounter every day, such as when we walk outside and experience optimism induced by a blue sky or orange sun, or experience quite the opposite effect from a grey day. Light therapy is also used to relieve Seasonal Affective Disorder (SAD), regulate your internal biological clock (circadian rhythms), and affect mood. Coloring books are a part of color treatment, which are practiced through years and years, on the art therapy basis. They make us feel relaxed and joyful, which is very important for our mindfulness to work.
